

On February 27 at 6:00 we are leaving from the church to go to Raccoon Mountain caving trip. Raccoon Mountain is in Tennessee. We will return on February 28 at noon. It is 56 dollars per person. the deadline to pay is February 17. there is no refund. bring your worst clothes because you will get dirty. there is souvenirs so it is suggested you bring 10 dollars. We will be sleeping in a cave over night. It is going to be 60 degrees in there so bring normal clothes but be sure they're not new. It is voted the 8th best cave and the best cave in Tennessee. It is just off Chattanooga. people have been visiting since 1931. It is a natural limestone and is noted for its incredible variety of passageway, large waterfalls, diverse formations, abundant fossils and spectacular scenery. there is 5 1/2 miles of explored and mapped passageways with new discovery being made. It is 7 minutes a way from historic downtown Chattanooga. While we are there we will be working on the geology merit badge on the second day. All of your stuff should fit in a duffle bag. The duffle bag is supplied There is a guided tour through Raccoon mountain. Bring a trash bag for when we ride back so we don't get the seats dirty.
